

Name and position today and a short background

Shan Simmonds, Lecturer, North-West University (South Africa)

Contact; Address; Telephone; e-mail; Website

e-mail: Shan.Simmonds@nwu.ac.za

tel: +2718 299-4764

website: www.hreid.co.za

Address: North-West University, Potchefstroom Campus, South Africa

Biography and Short CV

MEMBERSHIP OF PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Member of the Association for Religious Studies in South Africa (ASRSA)

Member of the Gender Forum Board of Interdisciplinary Gender Studies at the University of Johannesburg

Keywords to characterize your research profile

Curriculum Development

Human Rights Education in Diversity

Gender Studies

Your research and interest fields (short description)

Human rights education in diverse religious and cultural contexts with emphasis on gender studies and to inform curriculum development

6. Current projects (short summary)

Researcher in two projects:

SANPAD (Project leader, Prof Cornelia Roux),

NRF HRLit Project (Project leader, Prof Cornelia Roux)

Bibliography (Please enter your publications with the latest at the top in each section)

Book chapters

2012 Embracing diverse narratives for a postmodernist human rights education curriculum. In: Roux, C. (ed). Safe Spaces. Human rights education in diverse contexts. Amsterdam: Sense Publications. p. 164-176.

Articles in journals

2011 Understanding how we understand girls' voices on cultural and religious practices: toward a curriculum for justice. (Co-author P du Preez) South African Journal of Education, 31(3): 322-332.

2012 Views of boys and girls on cultural and religious practices for girls: A Gendered Human Rights Education perspective. (Co-authors CD Roux, I ter Avest and A de Wet). Gender and Education, DOI:10.1080/09540253.2012.712096 (on-line)

2012 Teaching-and-learning and curriculum development for human rights education: two sides of the same coin. (Co-authors P du Preez & CD Roux) Journal of Education, 55:83-103.

2012 Intersections of gender, religion and culture in adolescent girls' narratives: Curriculum considerations for Religion Education (RE). Journal for Gender and Religion in Africa. (in press).

CONFERENCES – papers

International

2010 Challenges of human rights in teaching-and-learning and curriculum development: two perspectives. Örebro-UNISA International Conference: Democracy, human rights and social justice in a new global dispensation – challenges and transformations. Pretoria, South Africa. (1-3 February). (co-authored by Petro du Preez)

- 2010 Learners' perceptions of human rights in shaping their understanding of freedom of religion and belief. International Seminar on Religious Education and Values (ISREV). Ottawa, Canada. (25-30 July).
- 2011 Human rights education toward a postmodernist perspective of human rights: A narrative inquiry. International Conference on Human Rights Education in Diversity: Challenges and Proposals. North-West University (Potchefstroom Campus), Potchefstroom. (18-20 April).
- 2012 The now generation of girls: (Re)respecting gender equity in religion and culture? International Seminar on Religious Education and Values (ISREV). Turku, Finland. (29 July – 3 August).
- 2012 The intersection of gender, religion and culture: Adolescent girls' narratives yesterday and today. International conference: Gender Studies at the interface of the humaniora. University of Johannesburg, Johannesburg. (15-17 August).

National

- 2008 Reflections from being a student to a young researcher in Religion Education. Annual Conference of Association of Religion in South Africa (ASRSA). University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban. (May)
- 2009 Media knowledge construction in the context of religious diversity in schools. Annual Conference of Association of Religion in South Africa (ASRSA). University of Stellenbosch. (June)
- 2010 Divergent value systems meet convergent moral dilemmas: Implications for teaching-and-learning in religion in education. WISER. In the presence of faith: An interdisciplinary symposium on Southern African studies of religion. University of Johannesburg. (24-26 February).
- 2010 Giving girls a voice: Contradicting viewpoints of girls cultural and religious practices in their communities. 3rd Research Colloquium: Education for Social Justice. University of the Free State, Bloemfontein. (29-30 September).
- 2010 Fostering a disposition for critical inquiry: Reflections on the perceptions and interpretations of education research students. 3rd Annual Teaching Practice Symposium: Teaching for Transformation. North-West University (Vaal Triangle Campus), Vanderbijlpark. (1-2 November).
- 2011 Gender equity: Girls from multicultural contexts perceptions and experiences. Annual Conference of Association of Religion in South Africa (ASRSA). University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban.
- 2012 Document research with emphasis on gender and gender related concepts: A Life Orientation perspective. 5th Annual Teaching Practice Symposium: Teaching for Transformation. North-West University (Vaal Triangle Campus), Vanderbijlpark. (29-30 October).

(2013-01-09)